

The Christian and Civil Government
Series... Romans: Foundations of Faith
Message #32- Sunday, October 11, 2020

Romans 13:1-7

1.0 Believers are to be subject to civil government because...

- A. All governing authorities are established by God. (Vs 1)
- B. Rebelling against authority is equivalent to rebelling against God. (Vs 2)
- C. Except ...

2.0 Doing what authorities say is the Christian's duty even when we personally disagree. (Vs 3-4)

Except:

3.0 For followers of Christ, obedience to those in authority should be more than compliance to avoid punishment; it should be a matter of a good conscience before God.

(Vs 5-7)

- A. Pay your taxes honestly.
- B. Pay your bills promptly.
- C. Show respect and honor sincerely.
